The Burke Company Featured in Home Improvement Magazine

Dallas, TX – August 2005 - The Burke Company, one of Dallas' most prestigious design, build, and remodeling firms, was recently featured in the Summer Edition of Home Improvement Magazine Dallas.

The article discussed Craftsman Bungalow homes and featured photography of a project that landed them NARI's coveted National Contractor of the Year (CotY) award for a Residential Addition. It is one of The Burke Company's many award-winning homes.

The Burke Company's design ingenuity can be seen at numerous homes throughout the historic and prestigious Lakewood, White Rock, and Preston Hollow areas of Dallas, Texas. Residents of these areas could truly select most any firm for their home's transformation; however, due to the company's deep commitment to integrity and craftsmanship, hundreds of homeowners have trusted no one else.
